The value of gold produced during the eleven months was £330,527, and showed a decrease of 4,102 oz. fine, and £17,427 in value, in the figures for the corresponding period of 1916.

Cost of Living, Sydney.—From the information collected each month (see Table 54, as to the retail prices in Sydney of food and groceries), it appears that in November, 1917, prices were 37·7 per cent. higher than in July, 1914; 4·7 per cent. higher than in November, 1916; and 2·0 per cent. lower than in the preceding month, October, 1917.

All cuts of meat declined in price; bacon, butter, cheese, and soap also fell, while increases were recorded in the price of sago, blue, and eggs.

The following is a statement of the price levels since July, 1914, the levels for which were taken as base and called 100 :—

Land Selections.—During November 88 applications were made for 49,589 acres under the Crown Lands Act; and 33,859 acres, representing 110 blocks, were gazetted for residential settlement, which include areas set apart for returned soldiers. Since the beginning of the year the number of applications has been 992, and the area applied for 489,801 acres. The original area gazetted for residential settlement since the 1st January is 731,682 acres, representing 1,563 blocks.

Meteorology.—Following the excessively moist conditions of September and October, the weather experienced throughout New South Wales during November was persistently unsettled, with an extraordinary succession of rainstorms, which made that month one of the wettest on record. All reporting stations received substantial falls, much in excess of normal, many at least 100 per cent. above normal. On the whole, the weather during the spring months was exceptionally changeable, with frequent wet spells. At places on the North Coast, in the early part of November, heavy rains were responsible for many rivers and streams reaching flood levels and causing considerable damage to property; also severe east to south-east gales and rough seas were reported along the coast during this disturbance. The temperature registered on the whole was extremely mild and equable.

Vital Statistics — Sydney and Suburbs — November, 1917.—The births registered numbered 1,588, equal to 24·92 per 1,000 of population; of the total, 846 were males and 742 females. The rate is not satisfactory, as it is 14 per cent. below the average of the previous five years.

The deaths numbered 593, namely, 351 males and 242 females, equal to a rate of 9·31 per 1,000 of population. The mortality rate is very satisfactory, being 16 per cent. below the average of the previous five years. The deaths were below the average in all age-groups except "65 and over."

The infantile mortality was 66·8 per 1,000 births, being 26 per cent. below the average for the month of November for the previous five years.

New Buildings—Metropolis.—According to returns supplied by the several Town Clerks there were erected, in the Metropolitan area, during November, 407 new buildings, as compared with 287 in November, 1916.

The total for the eleven months, January to November, was 4,616, as compared with 4,772 during the corresponding period of 1916.

§ Average official f.o.b. price for flour for home consumption. This includes 3½d. handling and commission charges; but city millers, handling grain for their own mills, obtain it for 1½d. per bushel less than the f.o.b. price. On March 25th the f.o.b. price was reduced to 4s. 10½d. per bushel, so that since that date the price for flour for home consumption has been 4s. 9d. per bushel (on trucks), Sydney.

(1) The exports in 1914-15 include articles produced in other States of Australia. Since 1st January, 1912, the Federal Customs Department has classified all goods produced in the Commonwealth simply as "Australian," without distinguishing, as formerly, the particular State where they were produced. (2) Includes cheese.

(30) For 1861 Gross Revenue and Expenditure are shown. Particulars for 1901 and 1911 are for the year ended 30th June following. Transfers to Public Works Fund and Closer Settlement Fund are excluded in 1911 and 1914-15. (4) Subsequent to 1881 the particulars are for the year ended 30th June following. (5) 1891 and 1901 include telephone wire; 1911 is exclusive of mileage of wire erected for railways. (6) 1901 and following years are for the December quarter.
